

Nelson Chambers - Comments

As a professional driver for nearly 20 years I'm in favor for all technologies that helped prove or improve safety for all drivers on the road but I am by no means behind any technology that removes a driver from gainful employment or anything that could affect the ability for future Generations of Americans to be able to be employed as truck drivers which has been very positive and financially stable means for me to support my family