This is the same technology they use in today's cell phones, tv's, home computers, etc...I've yet to have a cell phone last 6 months with out issue and you people want this same technology controlling a 80,000 lb truck ....what the hell y'all smoking up in D.C. ....ol'mayor Barry passing that stem around? I know that the laws will be adjusted to accommodate the manufacturers of this equipment..they've already paid you people off so in the name of profit you'll kill people on our highways...hope you all rot in hell
