

Ashley Valencia - Comments

FMCSA-2018-0037

no texting and driving has been around a for a long time, but people still continue to do it. we need to make it more known not just by putting up some signs people can see and just go on with their life, we need to put that info out in other ways so more people are interested in the topic. Like have it in movies, shows, music and even social media