

Comment from Johnny Satterwhite

84 FR-52743

The executive order that the president has signed could cause the president to be in violation of 18 USC 2385 that is accompanied by other violations of several us codes for instance 18 USC 2387 and the entire sections of the mentioned rule and for those reasons the presidents executive order 13889 will not be allowed to go into effect. The action would cause harm to the functions of the united states government.