

Comment from James Hearne

I have a 2015 Toyota Highlander. I find that the driver side outside mirror interferes with viewing cars approaching from a cross street, especially if the street is not at 90 degrees. Many times I have not been able too see cars in an intersection. A smaller camera would be a major improvement