

Comment from Regina Kenner

Weekend traffic on the I-95 corridor from Fredericksburg to Washington, DC is as heavy, if not more so, than weekday traffic, especially during the summer months and the November/December Holiday Season.

My suggestion:

Open the VRE on Weekends. This will allow locals, traveling locally, to avoid I-95, get to the metro more efficiently and reduce traffic volume.

Thank you for allowing this comment.