median barrier.

Avila continued and struck a small white SUV head-on, he said. Her vehicle flipped and smashed into the center median barrier, killing her.

The SUV was then struck from behind by another vehicle.

Two people in the SUV were taken to University Medical Center with injuries that were not considered life-threatening.

The motorist in the other vehicle was not seriously injured.

“Unfortunately for the Highway Patrol, wrong-way drivers are not new and uncommon,” Buratczuk said. “Our graveyard troopers see it almost nightly. The majority of the time it involves impairment, (and) 99 percent of the time the fatal crash happens in the left travel lane.”

The crash snarled traffic from Lake Mead back to the Spaghetti Bowl for several hours during the investigation. The interstate reopened just before 9 a.m.

BARRY LAWRENCE NIEDELMAN

Barry Lawrence Niedelman passed away peacefully on November 5, 2019 in Las Vegas, Nevada. He was 84 years young. Born on July 30, 1935 in the Bronx, New York as the only child of Max and Rae Niedelman, Barry enlisted in the Army in 1954 during the Korean War and served until 1958 with his last billet in France. In 1960, he married Cynthia Rosenthal and raised 3 wonderful children, Jeff, Andrea and Laura in Los Angeles, California. Barry graduated from the University of California Los Angeles and became a trusted technical writer with a career that spanned nearly 40 years with blue chip Fortune 500 companies such as ATT, NCR and Teradata. Barry was extremely popular with his co-workers, and with his charming and endearing personality he made countless friends throughout his career and life as a whole. In 1996, he and Cynthia retired in San Diego County. In 1998, he and Cynthia divorced and shortly thereafter he moved to Las Vegas with his new partner, Penny Shaw. They were married until 2018. Barry was passionate and deeply involved in the equestrian community beginning in 1969. He was an owner and trainer of numerous standardbreds and thoroughbreds, with much of his activity at Hollywood Park and Los Alamitos in the Los Angeles area. In 1997, Barry was in the syndicate that owned and trained Captain Bodgett that placed second in the Kentucky Derby under photo-finish. He was truly gifted in the science, statistics and spirit of the sport of horse racing. Barry was well respected in the equestrian community and passed along that gift to his youngest daughter Laura who ultimately became a champion hunter/jumper in San Diego County. Barry had another gift – he could compute various mathematical equations and numbers simultaneously at extremely high levels of efficiency. He once computed the total cost of over 300 grocery items, including the tax impact before the register completed the tally. He won many trifectas during his equestrian travels and even won a superfecta in 1995. But his greatest gift was with people, always leaving a positive impression with whoever he met, especially the caregivers at Avamere in Las Vegas where he spent his final days. Barry is survived by his first wife Cynthia McWhinney of Boynton Beach, Florida, his second wife Penny Shaw, his three children Jeff Niedelman of Boynton Beach, Florida, Andrea Niedelman of Kent, Washington and Laura Niedelman-Sicuro of Westlake, Texas; and his grandchildren Jessica and Matthew Niedelman. The family would like to recognize the caregivers and staff at Avamere in Las Vegas for their wonderful and compassionate care of Barry during his 18 months of residence. In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family requests that donations be made to the Public Broadcast System (PBS) in Barry's name.

MARY ALICE DeRUNTZ WINDISCH

Mary "Mae" died unexpectedly October 9, 2019 at the age of 94, after a brief illness. She was the second of nine children born of Helen and Joseph DeRuntz on September 23, 1925 in Granite City, IL. She was predeceased by her sisters Barbara DeRuntz and Helen Messmer and by brothers Jack, Robert, James and Eugene. Two siblings, Lonnie DeRuntz of Granite City, IL and Kevyn Lutton of San Francisco, CA survive her. Son, John predeceased her in 2018. Infant grandson, Jonathan precedes Mae also in death. Two sons, Joseph with wife "Dot" Dorothy, and Robin with wife Linda survives her. Her grandchildren are Campion, Jarrod with wife Nikki; Alicia, Andrew with wife Gillian, Steven with wife Laura; Blake, Holly and Mya, Benjamin with wife Renee; Samuel with wife Sally and great-grandchildren Elvis, Aubrie and Nolan. Her first and entire work life was as an employee of the Civil Service arm of the Military. Her first assignment was in Okinawa during the 1940s. It was there where she also raised 3 sons. Mae was always to be found wherever there was a major conflagration including Viet Nam and several other postings throughout the globe. All through her career she was highly respected and appreciated by the military personnel for whom she worked. Upon her retirement she indulged her love of her family of origin by re-connecting with an unmarried Sister and Brother and elderly Aunt bringing them all with her to Las Vegas where she set up a happy household until with time each of them passed on. She never missed occasional large gatherings of extended family in the Midwest. After moving to a smaller apartment Mae remained close to several nieces and nephews. They will not forget her affection and generosity. Mae was an active Member of a Special prayer group, "Lectio" for many years. She was a member of the Women of St. Joseph since its inception doing many charitable and supportive works for her community. She was a member of the Catholic War Vets who assembled at Our Lady of Wisdom Church for many years. They had the opportunity to do much for the Vets in Las Vegas and all around. Ann and Jim Young were blessed to have Mae as their family for many years as a friend, confident and mom figure. She was there always to be of help to them with prayer and concern through much sickness and joys. Mae was known to many as an "Angel of Mercy" through our parishes here in Las Vegas as all were her brothers and sisters in Christ and she was there for so many lives it is hard to know all she touched. She had the privilege of going home to the Lord in great peace and was always ready for His Call. At her wishes, please, in lieu of flowers donate to St. John Neumann Building Fund, St. Joseph HOM Building fund, Our Lady of Wisdom Building Fund, Catholic Charities and Neumann Center Building fund for College Students at UNLV. Her viewing will take place on Sun., Nov. 17, at Palm Mortuary on Oakey and Jones from 3 to 7PM with a Rosary at 5:30 PM.
