

Comment from laura murphy

this might create more safety on the highways but will create more deaths and sickness of disabled drivers and passengers who cannot safely tolerate all those radiofrequency emissions. for those who are disabled by RF, and there is a growing number of us worldwide, exposure to these new RF emitting systems in cars causes confusion, anxiety, exhaustion, cancers and eventually, death.