

Comment from Joseph Davis

I believe cameras can provide greater visibility and also not having a side mirror sticking out is safer for pedestrians and motorcyclists who ride between Lanes of traffic who can strike or be struck by a mirror protruding.