

Comment from Tahoe Owner

GM is just kicking the can down the road and putting a price on the lives of 4 million customers and their passengers by betting that the wrongful death and injury lawsuit payouts will be less costly than doing the right thing now and repairing these time bombs. Standard operating procedure