

Comment from Erin Schuster

As an employee in a Level 1 trauma center, I work with families impacted by underride crashes and see the devastation they cause patients and families. Please put an end to these preventable deaths and life-changing injuries by taking the steps needed to legally require effective underride protections on all trucks.