

Comment from Darrell Muller

As a veteran 35 yr driver and the numerous about of miles I have driven I am requesting that this Autonomous testing be done off of all highways and interstates until specific roadways are built for these vehicles alone. A trooper was just struck by a Tesla on auto pilot and is currently clinging to life right now. Testing on the highways and interstates is beyond unsafe.