

Comment from Katrina Smith

I'm a person with LD and I speak those who have different disabilities, when it comes to having public transportation, We need to have vehicles that are accessible with Ramp's and low steps for people who deal with medical conditions that effect their mobility