

Comment from Jack Hodges

I encourage the NHTSA to consider the option to use CMSs to replace side view mirrors. I have been driving a Tesla Model 3 for a year now and the view that the side cameras provide is superior in all lighting conditions to the tiny side mirrors provided. Removing the side mirrors would improve safety, improve economy, and wouldn't adversely affect visibility at all. Please allow auto makers the option of replacing side mirrors with CMSs.