

Comment from jennifer dossantos

I approve the decision of having a national survey on drowsy driving. Driving will being overly tired is very dangerous and should be made public on the importance of driving will being drowsy.