

Comment from Zachary Mayer

Approval of e cigarette use is hazardous to our society. While some people will switch from combustible products, this ruling will only increase the use of tobacco products. This ruling will undoubtedly adversely affect the health of Americans. The FDA is obviously being manipulated and controlled by special interest tobacco lobby at the expense of the public and in particular, children.