The world has not gotten darker in a lighting sense .I wear glasses when I drive at night . My problem is how do none of you people see that headlights on vehicles are not to bright . They magnify in my glasses because why please someone in this stupid ass government ran crap tell me me why do people wear glasses .? Oh yeah to see better oh but wait for it how does glasses help a human being see better oh wait wait wait yes it fucking magnafies what you are looking at . Did Harvard not teach you liberal monkies that in school or was they teaching just about skin color . I hope you fix this issue about headlights because I'll tell you right now more than half the people that have them are putting them on because why oh please pick me pick me they thinks it funny to blind on coming traffic. YOU WOULD KNOW THIS IF YOU DROVE AT NOGHT
