

Comment from Darell Dickey

Yes. Allow camera uses in all cases in the place of mirrors.

Cameras can easily offer 180-degree, unobstructed view from the B pillars around the back. Unobstructed, and a single image. Meaning one look in one place can give you all the information you need. All without moving your head to try and read three different mirrors, all with their own obstructions.