

Comment from Amy Marcin

I am the mother of a 19 month old child. I fear that she could be killed by a giant vehicle - either while a passenger in our small car or as a pedestrian. Please regulate the size and weight of cars. It is completely unnecessary for vehicles to be this big. Forty years ago, cars were not this large. Thank you.