

Comment from Andy Kelly

My feeling is there is not enough effort from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to train drivers of automobiles and that the State has done everything to prevent the training of motorcyclist by the mismanagement of the Motorcycles Safety program. There is so much room for improvement but the department of transportation does not care. They have a problem and just would like to keep their head in the sand