

Comment from Anonymous

Posted by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration on Aug 19, 2022

The design and production of any automobile/truck operated in the public and not under the immediate control of a competent licensed driver should be required to be certified as safe by a licensed professional engineer in that same way that such a licensed professional certification is required for all other products that impact the public's safety. It is important that a particular licensed individual, not a corporation, be made personally legally responsible absent the formal certification by the federal government as is done with, for example, commercial aircraft.