Why are illegals allowed to drive, causing car insurance rates to increase? In January, Illegal immigrant allegedly killed mother, son in drunk driving crash despite being deported 4 times Jose Guadalupe Menjivar-Alas has been deported from the US four times, according to ICE. An illegal immigrant from El Salvador who had been arrested multiple times in Boulder, Colorado for DWI and deported, was arrested once again last month in Colorado after allegedly killing a mother and her son in a car crash, which police say involved alcohol.

The Broomfield Police Department arrested 37-year-old Jose Guadalupe Menjivar-Alas on Dec. 15, 2023, in connection with a fatal crash three days prior on Main Street and Miramonte Boulevard.

Menjivar-Alas was driving a Toyota Tundra that crashed into a Mazda CX-5 driven by 47-year-old Melissa Powell. Powell's son, Riordan, was also in the Mazda, and they were both killed in the crash. Why was he allowed to drive? The family's blood is on hands of open border policy wonks. U.S. Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) told Fox News Digital Menjivar-Alas, a citizen of El Salvador, has been deported from the U.S. four times.

"ICE records show that the subject has been previously removed and has no regard for immigration law," an ICE spokesman said. Menjivar-Alas was first convicted of DWI on Aug. 4, 2007, and received subsequent convictions for the same offense on Dec. 7, 2016 and May 7, 2019. He was also convicted of driving with alcohol on Sept. 16, 2007. Despite being deported, Menjivar-Alas continued to make his way back into the country, where he was arrested numerous other times, and now allegedly killed a mother and her son.

According to ICE, the Denver field office lodged an immigration detainer with Broomfield County on Dec. 18, 2023.
